An owner or lienholder may reclaim an abandoned motor vehicle by presenting to the DMV satisfactory evidence of ownership, and paying or reimbursing, or making arrangements to pay or reimburse, the towing agency, the DMV, or private property owner (or person in control of the private property) any towing fee or storage charges permitted by Vermont law. An abandoned motor vehicle is a vehicle that has a valid registration plate or public vehicle identification number (which has not been removed, destroyed, or altered) and has remained on either public or private property (or on/along a highway), without the permission of the property owner (or the person in control of the property) for more than 48 hours, OR A motor vehicle that does NOT have a valid registration plate (or the public vehicle identification number has been removed, destroyed, or altered) and has remained on either public or private property (or on/along a highway) without the consent of the property owner (or person in control of the property) for any period of time. Certification Within 30 days of removal of the abandoned vehicle, the towing service which has removed the vehicle must apply to the Department of Motor Vehicles for an abandoned motor vehicle certification (form #VN-012). This must be based upon personal observation by the officer that the vehicle is abandoned. Authorized Businesses may obtain contact information in person from the Georgia Department of Revenue's Motor Vehicle Division or online through Auto Data Direct, the Department's official designated online vendor. In-Person Requests. You can also find driver's manuals with information on the rules of the road and the licensing process and information on specialized plate specifications. For in-person applications, complete and submit a Form MV-603 to your local county tag office or to the Motor Vehicle Division at 4125 Welcome All Road, Atlanta, Georgia 30349. All Authorized Businesses that want to foreclose on a lien allowed under the Act are also required by law to notify vehicle owners, lienholders, and security interest holders. If you obtain the necessary contact information from Auto Data Direct, you will not be required to submit the Form MV-603 to the local county tag office or to the Motor Vehicle Division. Law Enforcement Requests. As an alternative to requesting owner contact information from Auto Data Direct, you may also request owner and lienholder information from your local law enforcement agency. Fees and other costs Towing fees: For towing an abandoned motor vehicle from private property, a towing service may charge a reasonable fee to be paid by the private property owner (or person in control of the private property). The Act, effective September 1, 2019, also provides that towing and storage firms, repair facilities, and salvage dealers (Authorized Businesses) may obtain liens on abandoned or unclaimed motor vehicles by following a detailed process of notification to all owners, lienholders, and security interest holders. The Act provides the specifics at O.C.G.A. § 40-11-11 et seq. Towing and storage firms in Georgia are required by law to notify vehicle owners, lienholders, and security interest holders when a motor vehicle has been towed and impounded, offered by Massachusetts Registry of Motor Vehicles All the forms, manuals, and applications you need for RMV transactions The RMV has many different forms for its transactions, from learner's permit applications and license/ID renewal forms to vehicle registration and title forms. An abandoned motor vehicle certification form must indicate the date of removal, make, color, model, location found, and the name, address, and phone number of the towing service, and a certification (by a law enforcement officer of the public vehicle identification number, if any. Storage charges: In addition to any towing fee, an owner (or lienholder) reclaiming an abandoned motor vehicle may be charged and must pay a fee for the costs of storage of the vehicle, however, no fee may be charged for storage for any period prior to the date upon which the form for abandoned motor vehicle certification is sent by the towing service to the DMV. The movement/removal of an abandoned vehicle will not result in any civil liability to the owner of the abandoned vehicle. Reclaiming an Abandoned Vehicle The DMV will make a reasonable attempt to locate the owner of an abandoned motor vehicle. If no owner can be determined by the DMV within the time period allowed by law, the DMV will issue a Certificate of Abandoned Motor Vehicle along with an appropriate title or salvage title, and the vehicle may be disposed of as indicated below. Removal from Public Property Only a law enforcement officer is authorized to remove (or bring about removal of) an abandoned motor vehicle from public property, and may contact a towing service for removal of the motor vehicle. If a private property owner (or person in control of the private property) removes or brings about the removal of an abandoned motor vehicle, s/he must immediately notify the police agency in the jurisdiction from which the vehicle is removed. Removal by a law enforcement officer is based upon complaint of the property owner (or person in control of the property) on which the vehicle is located that the vehicle is abandoned. The notice will be sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, and will advise the last known registered owner of the vehicle's location and a telephone number where additional information about the vehicle may be obtained. If the abandoned motor vehicle is not identifiable by its registration plates or public vehicle identification number, and if no owner can be determined within 21 days of the date of receipt of the completed abandoned motor vehicle certification form (VN-012), the DMV will issue a Certificate of Abandoned Motor Vehicle with an appropriate title or salvage title. There is a $2 research fee for the contact information. Online Requests. If the receipt is not returned to the department within seven business days, the DMV will send a second notice (by first class mail). A private property owner (or person in control of the private property) is authorized to remove (or bring about removal of) an abandoned motor vehicle from that property, and may contact a towing service to remove an abandoned vehicle. If the abandoned motor vehicle is identifiable by its registration plates or public vehicle identification number, the DMV will (within three business days of receipt of the completed abandoned motor vehicle certification form), send notice to the last known registered owner and any lienholder of the vehicle. Per Georgia law, a business removing an abandoned or unclaimed motor vehicle from public rights of way or private or public property must go through a process to ensure the rights of the vehicle owners, lienholders, and security interest holders are protected. Notification must include identification of the registration plate number, the public vehicle identification number, make, model, and color of the vehicle. For online requests for contact information, use Auto Data Direct. If the last known registered owner (or lienholder) fails or refuses to reclaim the vehicle within 21 days of the second mailing, the DMV will issue a Certificate of Abandoned Motor Vehicle with an appropriate title or salvage title. Within 21 days of sending the second notice, the last known registered owner (or lienholder) may reclaim and retrieve the motor vehicle by presenting to the DMV satisfactory evidence of ownership, and paying or arranging to pay any fees or charges authorized by law. Note: The "public identification number" is the number which is usually visible through the windshield and attached to the driver's side of the dashboard, instrument panel, or windshield pillar post or on the doorjamb on the driver's side of the vehicle. Removal from Private Property A law enforcement officer is authorized to remove (or bring about removal of) an abandoned motor vehicle from private property, and may contact a towing service for removal from private property of the vehicle. Exceptions A vehicle or other equipment used or to be used in construction or in the operation or maintenance of highways or public utility facilities (as long as it is left in a manner which does not interfere with the normal movement of traffic) cannot be considered to be an abandoned motor vehicle. A certificate of title cannot be obtained for an abandoned vehicle on the basis of a surety bond, nor can a title be issued on a vehicle that is not required to be titled in Georgia (including 1985 or older year models). HB 307 created the Abandoned Motor Vehicle Act (Act), which provides that only towing and storage firms are authorized to remove vehicles from public and private property at the request of law enforcement officers or private property owners. Upon receiving a completed abandoned motor vehicle certification form, the DMV will attempt to identify and notify the owner of the vehicle as required by law.
